American Study Week
Eyes on America

Monday, Nov 24

15:30 – 17:30 at The American Corner/Amideast

Film Discussion

American Fulbright Scholar Claudia Jannone will be presenting and discussing the groundbreaking movie Shattered Glass, which depicts the quick rise and downfall of Stephen Glass's career as a journalist at the New Republic magazine. This movie, based on real events and capturing the world of political journalism, will be an opportunity to examine journalistic ethics.

Tuesday, Nov 25

15:00 – 16:00 at The U.S. Embassy

Photo Exhibit by Ibrahim Ben Slama

Ibrahim Ben Slama, Youth Exchange and Study Program Alumnus, will be presenting a photography exhibit portraying larger-than-life American landscapes, historical monuments and American society in action.

16:00 – 17:00 at The U.S. Embassy

Photo Exhibit by Jesus Villegas

American English Language Fellow, Jesus Villegas, will be presenting "A Day in the Life of an Average American," which is a collection of snapshots taken by random Americans documenting an average day at home.

Wednesday, Nov 26

17:00 – 18:30 at The American Corner/Amideast

Open Discussion

Hisham Ben Khamsa, General Manager of Palmyra Communications and organizer of "Views of America," will be conducting an open discussion entitled "To what extent did Hollywood play a role in shaping the perception of US voters during the 2008 election campaign?"

Friday, Nov 28

15:00 – 16:30 at The U.S. Embassy

Presentation

Six Tunisian lecturers and media program alumni will be conducting group presentations on the changing Media landscape in the US with a focus on the 2008 elections, the 1st Amendment and print press.

16:30 – 17:30 at The U.S. Embassy

Presentation

American Study Research Program alumna Leila Ameur will be conducting a presentation entitled "Spotlight on FEMA Disaster Management: 2005 Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans."

*To confirm your attendance please send an email to saaieds@state.gov or zairid@state.gov *